Case # 631467

Dear Mr. Faria,

Thank you for reaching out to us!

We received your letter you had addressed to Jason Hart, CEO of ALDI, and we are responding on his behalf.

ALDI is always looking for new geographic areas to continue to bring smart shoppers the highest quality products at the lowest possible prices. While we have a lot of criteria for choosing store locations, our No. 1 reason is to be where ALDI fans are shopping. We appreciate the New Bedford City Council's input and will share it with our real estate team for further review.

If the real estate team has further questions regarding your suggestion, they will contact you directly.

Thank you again for your interest in ALDI.

Kind regards,

ALDI Customer Service Supervisor
