Esteemed Mayor Mitchell,

Please find attached my application to the Commission for Citizen's with Disabilities for your consideration. I believe that my personal and professional experiences would make me an asset to the CCD.

I currently serve as a commissioner on the Council on Aging Advisory board. Given changes in my personal and professional calendars I will no longer be able to participate on the COA advisory board. However, I would like to continue serving my city and I respectfully request your consideration to an appointment on the Commission for Citizen's with Disabilities.
