City Council President Ian Abreu and
Honorable members of the City Council
City Hall
133 William Street
New Bedford, MA 02740

Dear Council President Abreu and Honorable Members of the City Council:

Attached for the Council's consideration are proposed amendments to Chapter 2, Article XI. New Bedford Historical Commission; Historic Districts, providing for the establishment of the Abolition Row and Mechanics Lane Historic Districts which includes individual maps defining the new districts and revising the Historical Commission membership composition.

BACKGROUND

The city values its heritage and has long established policies that encourage the utilization of historic preservation as part of a comprehensive revitalization strategy that serves to maintain and enhance the unique character of the city. New Bedford is proudly home to seven National Historic Landmarks, three of which are located within the proposed Abolition Row District, and currently has fifteen National Register Districts which range in diversity from parks and textile mill complexes to industrial power plants and residential neighborhoods. The city has one local historic district, the Bedford Landing – Waterfront Historic District, established in 1971 and which shares its boundaries with the New Bedford Whaling National Historical Park.

In late 2016 the Historical Commission was approached by several residents along Seventh Street and Mechanics Lane asking that the possibility of creating new Local Historic Districts for the two neighborhoods be explored. A Local Historic District is a specifically designated area deemed historically or architecturally significant that is protected from changes that would negatively impact that area's historic character.

Between 2016 and 2022 the Historical Commission and Preservation Planner met with the neighborhood residents several times and this initiative reflects significant public and stakeholder input, as well as comprehensive review and feedback from the Massachusetts Historical Commission and the New Bedford Planning Board.

ABOLITION ROW DISTRICT AND MECHANICS LANE DISTRICT ESTABLISHMENT

The proposed Abolition Row Local Historic District comprises a unique and cohesive group of residential properties along Seventh Street, which represent New Bedford's significant role in the Abolition Movement. The proposed Mechanic's Lane Local Historic District, named aptly for a small alley way which is the centerpiece of the district, is a small cohesive group of mostly residential properties constructed in the early to mid-nineteenth century which housed tradesmen and craftsmen who were commonly referred to as "mechanics".

The final Study Report for each proposed district can be found on the city's webpage: <https://www.newbedford-ma.gov/planning/historic-district/>

Unlike the previously established Bedford Landing – Waterfront Historic District, the Historical Commission determined to provide exclusions and exemptions of certain elements and features from its review within the Abolition Row and Mechanics Lane Districts, which is consistent with the state enabling legislation, M.G.L.A. c. 40C, § 8(a). The option to provide certain exemptions from review was determined as an effort not to overburden property owners and as a method to facilitate reviews and permitting.

HISTORICAL COMMISSION MEMBERSHIP

The local historic district ordinance provides the Historical Commission with all the powers and duties of an historic district commission, and due to the relatively small number of properties within the proposed Abolition Row and Mechanics Lane Districts, the newly established districts will be administered by the New Bedford Historical Commission, rather than establish separate District Commissions.

M.G.L.A. c. 40C, § 4 requires that where possible, membership include nominees from a local historical society, the Board of Realtors, and the American Institute of Architects. These categories of membership remain unchanged. To accommodate the inclusion of one or more residents or owners of property in the additional historic districts, the current Historical Commission membership is proposed to be adjusted. In addition to the inclusion of district residents and the categories of membership required through M.G.L.A. c. 40C, § 4, the study recommends additional categories for membership. The addition of one (1) licensed general contractor or building tradesperson, and four (4) persons, who through education or experience, have demonstrated a commitment to historic preservation or have a background in any of the categories represented by the regular members of the commission, as alternate members will provide essential skills and knowledge to the Commission and will supplement the Commission's current membership composition.

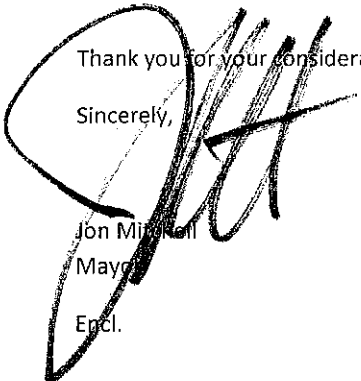

APPROACH TO AMENDING THE ORDINANCE

As striking Chapter 2, Article XI in its entirety would require reappointment of the current Historical Commission membership, those specific sections of the ordinance are recommended for amendment instead of replacement so as not to impact the operations of the existing commission.

The proposed designation of the Abolition Row and Mechanics Lane Local Historic District will ensure that these unique and cohesive group of properties are recognized for their historic and architectural significance, protected from adverse and irreversible alterations, and that future redevelopment will be consistent with the historic character of the settings. Based on the high degree of integrity retained within each proposed district and the support and advocacy by the residents, these areas merit consideration as local historic districts.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

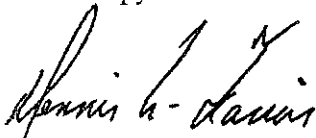

Jon Mitchell
Mayor
Encl.
