Dear Parks Recreation & Beaches Department,

Please find enclosed an application for a Memorial Park Bench. Although I haven't lived in New Bedford for quite some time, I still have family and friends there, and visit the city frequently. I was excited to see the news about the renovation of the bowling greens at Hazelwood Park, and thought it would be a fitting memorial for my parents to have a park bench dedicated to their memory overlooking the greens.

My parents and I emigrated from England to New Bedford in 1953, and for several decades my Dad, Frank Hamer, was an active lawn bowler, serving as president of the association for part of that time. Both he and my Mom have passed away (my Mom just recently), and so this seems like the perfect time to submit the application.

So, in summary, the application is for a park bench overlooking the bowling greens if at all possible, including a plaque with the inscription, "In Loving Memory of Frank and Eunice Hamer."

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Merv Hamer
